

Profile:

People Management Professional & an IIMA Alumnus with over 17 years of experience, Subhankar is the right mix of technical as well as leadership expertise. His exposure to diverse industries over the course of time has moulded and polished him to be a focused, result-oriented and go-getter HR leader. Subhankar brings in a can-do attitude which thrives on the bed-rock of integrity and a people-centric approach to create a positive environment.

Subhankar's earlier work experience with companies like ICICI Prudential, Muthoot Pappachan Group and ABP News Network has provided a fantastic opportunity to work and understand diverse cultures. Currently he holds the position of Chief People Officer at Zoom Insurance Brokers Pvt Ltd. wherein, he has brought in new and innovative ideas related to the people function which is reflected in the accelerated growth of the organization. His association with various Industry Bodies make him a sought-after HR leader who believes in sharing knowledge to the youths of the country.

He has been recently awarded the "Most Influential HR Leader in India" by World HRD Congress. Subhankar's education background is rooted at Don Bosco School and Cotton College Guwahati. He is also an Engineering graduate in Electronics & Telecommunication besides being an MBA in Human Resources Management.